ST LOUIS COIN FESTIVAL.

The first ''Fall Festival of the St Louis Coin Club will be held Oct 29th & 30th 1960 at the Statler Hotel, in Downtown St Louis. Opening 9.00 A. M. Each day.

Spacious room for the Bourse, Auction display, and ample parking, elevator service,good food and drink, and convenient rest rooms are provided. Gold, uncirculated coins, proofs, and other rarities will be on display.

Two hundred items of the finest material ever collected in this area will be auctioned off on Saturday starting time 7 P. M. and on Sunday the auction will start at 1.00 P. M.

A set of large cents, six three dollar gold pieces, one dollar gold pieces, rare silver dollars, half cents, Lincoln'S, Indian cents, rolls, and many other scarce items.

The Public is invited,this will be your chance to bid, and get some of these scarce materials, Bring along your family, and your friends, Registration is only fifty Cents.

Mr Eric Newman, world wide traveler, and well known authority on coins and currency will conduct a series of talks on Numismatics, he will be assisted by St Louisan Mr Al Wick.

Attendance prizes will be giveh away every hour.

Display highlights will be an 1864 L Proof Indian cent,and many complete rare sets in Proof condition, Also thevery rare Fifty Dollar St Louis Federal Reserve Bank Note.

This display will be shown by the St Louis Club and will not be in compotion for the Prizes.

There will be cash prizes for the best displays.

$50.00	First Prize	$15.00	3rd Prize
$25.00	2nd Prize.	$10.00	4th Prize

If you wish to have a display, please contact Tom Elder, 3651 Giles Ave St Louis Mo.

(Note to dealer; 6 FT ~~#### ##~~ Tables.-$20.00 for both days. Bring your own lamps & cases.

Auction Time; 7.00 P. M. Saturday. Sunday 1.00 P. M.

General chairman; Joseph Rataj 1555 S. 39th St St Louis 10 Missouri.